TO WHICH IS PREFIXED, A CONTINUATION OF THE

Bye Laws and Regulations of the Company.

COMMUNITER BONA PROFUNDERE DEORUM EST.

Philadelphia:

PRINTED BY ZACHARIAH POULSON, JUNIOR, LIBRARIAN,
NUMBER EIGHTY, CHESNUT-STREET.

June 30, 1796.

A CONTINUATION OF

The Bye-laws and Regulations

OF THE

LIBRARY COMPANY.

A Law for increasing the Price of Shares.

FOR the increasing the funds of the Library Company of Philadelphia, for the enlarging the collection of books, and facilitating the advancement of knowledge and literature, It is enacted by the said Library Company of Philadelphia, That any person or persons (who shall be approved of by the Directors, for the time being) shall be admitted a member or members of the said Company as fully, to all intents and purposes, as any member now is or can be, upon paying, into the hands of the said Company's Treasurer, the sum of FORTY DOLLARS, and receiving a certificate, agreeably to the directions of a law directing the manner of admitting new members.

And be it further enacted, That so much of the law, passed on the twentieth day of February, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, as fixes the price of a share at ten pounds, be hereby repealed.

Enacted at a general meeting, held pursuant to public notice, on Friday the thirtieth day of August, 1793.

Benjamin R. Morgan, Secretary.

An act to repeal so much of any law or laws of the Company as authorizes the Directors to dispose of the real estate belonging to the Company.

IT is enacted by the Library Company of Philadelphia, That so much of any law or laws as authorizes and empowers the Directors to grant or demise any part of the real estate belonging to the said Company shall be and the same is hereby repealed. Provided always nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to restrain the Directors from making leases or agreements relative to the building erected for the reception of the Loganian Library, the cellar under the same, and the cellar under the building in which the Library belonging to this institution is now contained.

Enacted at a general meeting, held pursuant to public notice, on the sixteenth day of March, 1795.

Benjamin R. Morgan, Secretary.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Library Company of Philadelphia, April 17th. 1795.

The Secretary reported, That the following act has been passed by the Legislature of this commonwealth, viz.

“ An act to authorize the Directors of the Library Company of Philadelphia to increase the annual payment of the Members of the said Company.

*“ W*HEREAS, by the charter of the said company, the annual payments directed to be made by its respective members appear limited to the sum of ten shillings, which, from the depreciation of money since the year one thousand seven hundred and forty two, when the said charter was granted, has become inadequate to the purposes originally intended: And whereas the stockholders in the said company, at a general meeting on the sixteenth of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, instructed the Directors to petition the Legislature to pass a law authorizing the said Directors to increase the said payments to two Dollars, and it appears reasonable that the prayer of the said petitioners should be granted:

“ Section

“ Section. I. Be it therefore enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met,
 “ and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Directors
 “ of the Library Company, for the time being, be, and they are “ hereby, authorized to increase the annual payments hereafter to “ be made by the members of the said company, to the sum of two “ Dollars from each member of the said company, any thing in the “ charter thereof to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

“ GEORGE LATIMER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

“ ROBERT HARE, Speaker of the Senate.

“ Approved April the thirteenth, 1795.

“ THOMAS MIFFLIN, Governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.”

Whereupon, The following resolution was agreed to, viz.

Whereas by an act of the General Assembly, passed on the thirteenth day of April instant, the Directors of the Library Company of Philadelphia are authorized to increase the annual payments to be made by each member to the sum of two dollars: it is, therefore, Resolved, That the annual payment to be made on each share, on the first Monday of May next, and from and after that time, shall be, and it is hereby, increased to the sum of two Dollars, and the Treasurer is hereby authorized and instructed, to demand and receive the same from the members, under the like penalties and forfeitures as are now in force for recovering the annual payments heretofore established.

Extracted from the minutes,

Benjamin R. Morgan, Secretary.

At a meeting of the Directors, December 6th. 1792.

Resolved, That persons indebted for fines or hire be, in future, entirely precluded from the use of the books belonging to the Library Company of Philadelphia, until such fines and hire be paid.

Extracted from the minutes,

Benjamin R. Morgan, Secretary.

At a meeting of the Directors, on the second of January, 1794, the following report was made, and adopted by the Board, to wit,

The committee to whom was referred the application of the Librarian, relative to the cases of executors and administrators of deceased members, report,

That it would be adviseable to direct the Librarian, that no books shall be lent, in such cases, except on notes signed by all the executors or administrators of the person deceased, or by some one of them, appointed and authorized by written orders of the others—such orders to be left with the Librarian as long as any books are taken out by virtue of them.

Extracted from the minutes of the Directors,
Benjamin R. Morgan, Secretray.

At a meeting of the Directors, held the sixth of August, 1795, the following resolution was adopted, to wit,

Resolved, That every member, or other person, who shall take out a book or books on hire, shall pay, for the use of the Library, the following rates, weekly: For Duodecimos and Octavos two sixteenths of a dollar, Quartos three sixteenths of a dollar, and Folios four sixteenths of a dollar, and no smaller sum, although the book may be returned within the week.

That for neglecting to return the book or books, so taken out on hire, within the times specified in the rules of the Company, they shall pay to the Librarian, for the use aforesaid, two sixteenths of a dollar per week, in addition to the hire.*

Extracted from the minutes,

Benjamin R. Morgan, Secretary.

* For the further penalties, see the rules prefixed to the general catalogue—particularly the third and fourth.
